Bears sleep all winter. And yet, we think we're the smart ones. Go figure.

It's so cold outside I saw a politician with his hands in his own pockets!

B-52 Lights

This colossal cold war era bomber is prominently displayed at the entrance of Wings Over the Rockies Air and Space Museum in the Lowry neighborhood of Denver, CO. During the holiday season of 2014 the museum adorned the B-52 with 52,000 lights making for one amazing display.
